On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Halifax Town who hit the headlines when they put Manchester City out of the FA Cup at the third round stage.

One thing we shall certainly not do is underestimate their challenge as we battle it out today for a place in the draw for the next round.

Preparations for the game as far as the players are concerned have been affected by the weather.

On Monday, all our training outdoors was hit by the weather with ice and rain affecting the surfaces.

We did as much as possible indoors, but made plans to have a day at Blackpool where the weather had been milder.

I think it is a good thing anyway, from time to time, to have a change of scene and routine. And this became particularly important when our League game at West Brom was called off last weekend.

Once again the weather called the shots and it decimated the whole of the programme with the game between Halifax and Northampton another casualty.

MAGIC

The cup always has its own particular magic for me. And a club like Halifax entering the competition at the first round stage have already, to their credit come a long way.

There is always the chance that the form book will be upset - as Manchester City found out to their cost - and that is so much a part of the Cup's attraction.

Today, since we look at one game at a time, our League cares have been put behind us. I have no secret of the fact that I would like to see us involved in a good Cup run and it is entirely up to us to make progress.

Welcome to HALIFAX TOWN

Halifax Town today appear in the fourth round of the F.A. Cup for only the fourth time in their history and for the first time since 1969. Yet they come to Burnden Park with the assurance of a team that knows it is within its grasp to make this the club's greatest-ever season in Cup football.

Indeed, they come here with the opportunity of equalling their feat of 1952/53 when they knocked out two First Division clubs before bowing to the superior skills of Tottenham in the fifth round. Cardiff and Stoke City were both First Division sides when they lost at The Shay that season and, such was the excitement engendered by that run, that the attendance for Spurs' visit was 36,885 which remains to this day a club record.

Halifax also got to the fifth round in 1932/33 but then their opponents in all five rounds came from the Third Division or non-League circles.

So seasons 1952/53 remains by far their best in Cup football — so far!

After their wonderful victory over multi-million pound Manchester City in the last round, Halifax must now command the very highest respect and no one will be foolish enough to dismiss their chances purely on account of their very modest position half-way up the Fourth Division table.

It's difficult to realise that, only nine months ago, there was a very grave doubt as to Halifax's future as a Football League club. George Kirby, who returned for his second spell as manager in November 1978, had been unable to pull the club out of the re-election zone and, with the current trend towards the admission of ambitious new clubs, Halifax went to London to make their ninth application for re-election with some trepidation.

Mr. Kirby remarked on the eve of that meeting: "I can't start planning until I know the result. I sincerely hope they will vote us back. And, if they do, I can promise you that we'll really go next season. We might even win promotion!"

Few people took him seriously. Yet Halifax did indeed make a bold bid for promotion until a run of seven games without a win, ending in December, blighted their chances.

Mr. Kirby made only three major close-season signings. He negotiated the transfer of midfield player Paul Hendrie from Bristol Rovers, defender David Harris from Port Vale and midfield man, or defender, Tony Geidmintis, from Northampton.

As the season progressed he signed goalkeeper John Kilner from Preston and midfield player Malcolm Goodman from Bromsgrove Rovers. He also signed another midfielder, John Smith, who had been with Preston until going to the United States last summer.

It's three years since Halifax last survived beyond the first round of the F.A. Cup but goals from Peter Burke and Andy Stafford gave them a comfortable win over non-League Scarborough in this season's first round. They then found themselves involved in a marathon second round tussle with Walsall. A goal by Mick Kennedy gave them a very good 1-1 draw at Fellows Park and the replay at The Shay also ended 1-1, with David Harris grabbing their goal.

Second-half goals from Burke and John Smith finally turned the tie their way by 2-0 in the third meeting, also at Halifax.

Then came that real shocker when Halifax contained Malcolm Allison's much-publicised City team and drove home the killer blow when Paul Hendrie scored the winner 15 minutes from time. The City tie attracted The Shay's biggest attendance (12,599) for almost nine years.

Back in July 1971 a gathering of 19,765 watched Halifax beat the other Manchester club, United, in a pre-season Watney Cup tie. That was during Mr. Kirby's first period as manager and he hopes this current Cup run will have a similar effect upon the club.

"That success did much to revive interest in the club", he says. "I hope this season's success will have the same effect because, before we embarked on this run, we had several attendances of well below two thousand".

Perhaps the most pleasing aspect of Halifax Town's current moment of fame is the manner in which they have achieved it: not by clogging their way to victory but by meeting, and beating, top quality opposition with pure footballing skills.

A New Director

Mr Brian Turnbull

Local businessman Mr. Brian Turnbull has been appointed to the board of directors at Burnden Park. Everyone here at Bolton Wanderers extends a warm welcome to our new director.

Mr. Turnbull, aged 39, replaces former Wanderers vice-chairman Mr. Jack Woods who left the board in November last year and is now a vice-president.

Mr. Turnbull is no stranger to Burnden Park and has been a keen supporter for many years in more ways than one. He has sponsored matches for many years through his companies Walkden Metals and Walkden Autos, and was advertising at matches back in the early seventies when the club had its short spell in Division Three.

It was unfashionable to advertise on a third division ground in those days, but Mr. Turnbull went against the trend and has continued to support the team ever since.

He is believed to be the youngest director on the Wanderers board in the history of the club and his appointment reduces the average age of the board to below 50.

The resignation of financial director Mr. Bannister Cowsill a week earlier still leaves a vacancy on the board.

Mr. Cowsill, like Mr. Woods, had been on the board for seven years and he too accepted the offer of a vice-presidency in recognition of his service to the club.

Once again, local soccer enthusiasts are being offered the chance of an introduction to the diagnosis and treatment of injuries.

The Football Association has decided to run a second course on the subject at Burnden, following the huge success of a similar one staged earlier in the season.

More than 60 people, including a number of the Wanderers players, attended the first course, which was run by Jim Headrige the Wanderers trainer and physiotherapist.

Jim is the North West Regional instructor on soccer injuries for the FA and he described the response to the last course as "overwhelming".

This latest venture starts on Thursday next here at Burnden Park, starting at 7 p.m. It will be of particular value to school sports teachers, technical college lecturers or anyone connected with local soccer teams.

The instruction given by Jim, essential background information combined with practical work, will ensure those who attend the course will be well equipped with a basic knowledge of handling injuries which occur on the field.

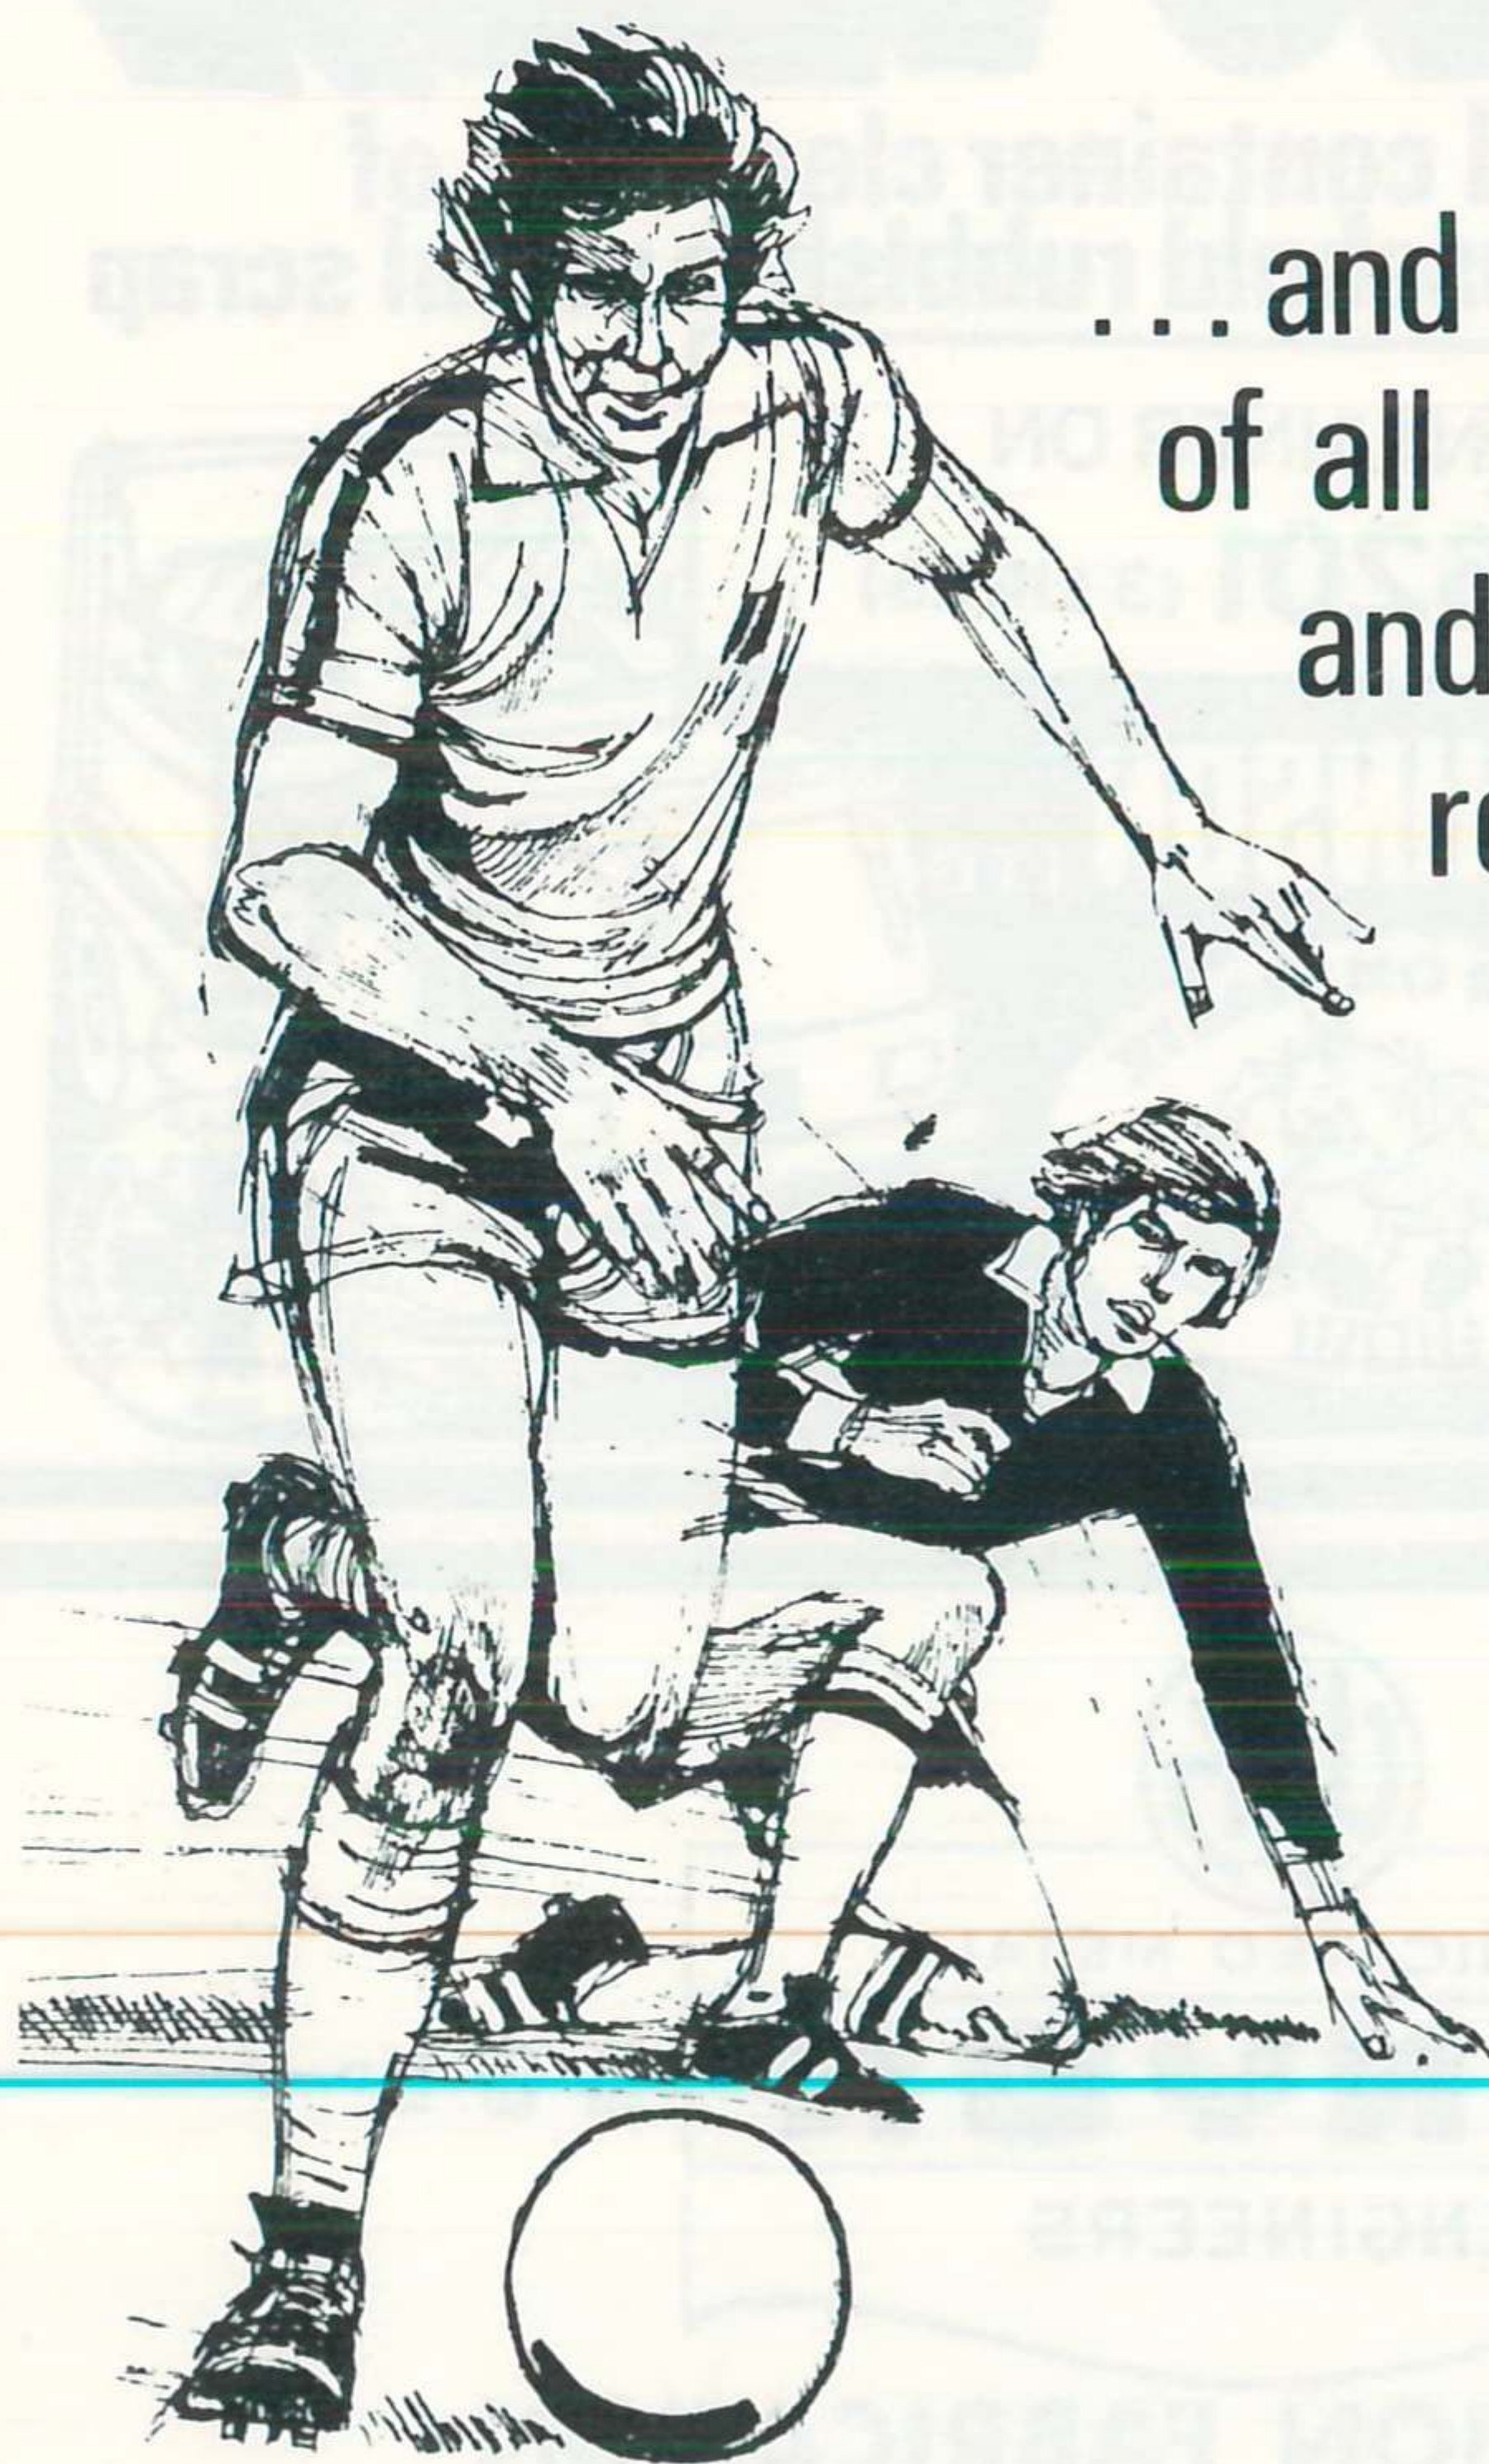

Once again, the FA preliminary certificate on injury treatment will be available at the end of the course, which will have a dual purpose.

New pupils will be welcome, but those who attended the last course will be offered the chance to revise the work they did then and to cover new ground; and new pupils will get an introduction to the subject.

Anyone interested in taking part should contact Terry Casey the FA Regional Coach at 31A Wellington Street, Blackburn, Tel. Blackburn 51642.

If today's match ends in a draw the replay will be at Halifax on Tuesday next, kick off 7.30 p.m.

JOHN KILNER (Goalkeeper) John developed with Preston but had little opportunity to get into their first-team with Roy Tunks performing so consistently. He initially joined Halifax on loan last season, when he made 21 League appearances. He returned to Deepdale until completing a full transfer to Halifax earlier this season.

CHRIS DUNLEAVY (Defender) Chris opened his career with Everton and was transferred to Southport in 1969. He spent four years at Haig Avenue before moving on to Chester and he remained with that club until his latest move, to Halifax, three seasons ago.

DAVID EVANS (Defender) David didn't get into the senior team at Aston Villa but he commanded a £20,000 fee when Halifax signed him last season and gave him his chance in League football.

DAVID HARRIS (Defender) David joined Halifax from Port Vale during last close-season. He had been with Vale since leaving school and made his League debut in 1973.

GEOFF HUTT (Defender) Geoff's first club was Huddersfield and he was a first-teamer at Leeds Road when the club was in the First Division. Geoff made well over 150 senior appearances for Huddersfield then, after a loan spell at Blackburn, he joined York City in 1976. Halifax signed him during the 1977 close-season.

FRANNY FIRTH (Midfield/Forward) Franny served his apprenticeship with Huddersfield Town and made a couple of dozen League appearances for them before joining Halifax two seasons ago.

PAUL HENDRIE (Midfield) Paul became Halifax's hero when he scored the goal that knocked out Manchester City in the last round. He was another close-season signing, joining the club after two seasons with Bristol Rovers. Paul began his career with Birmingham and made several appearances in their First Division side.

MICHAEL KENNEDY (Midfield) Michael joined Halifax as a schoolboy and later served his apprenticeship with the club. He was signed as a professional last season and is now holding a regular place.

TONY GEIDMINTIS (Midfield) Tony has been in League soccer since making his bow with Workington in 1965. Though normally a defender, he has also played in midfield — as he is currently doing — and in 1972/73 he was their top scorer. He was transferred to Watford in 1976 and moved on to Northampton two seasons ago. Halifax signed him last summer.

MALCOLM GOODMAN (Midfield/Defender) Malcolm joined Halifax from Bromsgrove Rovers as a non-contract player last August and he has now turned professional. He has played several games in midfield and defence and is quite often nominated as substitute.

JOHN SMITH (Midfield) John previously played for Preston N.E. and made about 100 first-team appearances before leaving Deepdale last April to try his luck in U.S. soccer. When he returned he signed for Halifax as a non-contract player in November 1979. John scored one of the goals that knocked out Walsall in round two.

PETER BURKE (Forward) Peter served his apprenticeship with Barnsley, graduating to their first-team in 1974/75 for a couple of games. The following season he became a regular but he later lost his place and signed for Halifax in 1978. He has scored twice in Halifax's Cup run.

BOBBY MOUNTFORD (Forward) Bobby joined Port Vale as soon as he left school and rose to their League eleven in 1970/71. He was transferred to Rochdale in 1974 and topped their scoring list for each of his three full seasons at Sporlands. Soon after the start of 1977/78 he moved on to Huddersfield but, after only a short stay, Halifax paid £10,000 to take him to The Shay.

ANDY STAFFORD (Midfield) Andy was previously a non-contract player with Blackburn but it was Halifax who gave him his professional chance. He was blooded in their League side last season and he scored one of the goals that got their Cup run off the ground this season when they eliminated Scarborough (2-0) in the first round.

The Programme Game

by ROY CAVANAGH

Following my article on famous F.A. Cup programmes, I have been taking a look at some of the programmes from England games and other important matches around the world.

Over the past twenty years only two England home games have been played away from Wembley. They were the European Nations Cup game with France at Hillsborough, Sheffield in 1963, and, a friendly with Poland at Goodison, Everton in 1966.

These programmes are of great interest to collectors as they would only be printed in small numbers, compared to a full house at Wembley and a print of around 150,000 copies.

In the post-war period of 1946–1958, England took their games to a lot of different grounds, Arsenal, Tottenham, Manchester City, Everton, and Aston Villa, all staging full internationals.

However, it's a programme for the friendly against Holland at Huddersfield which is one of the hardest to acquire.

The match was played midweek, with a small crowd, and it poured with rain! Consequently what programmes there were helped keep a lot of heads dry and obviously haven't stood the test of time!

Incidentally England won this 1947 friendly 7–2 with Tommy Lawton scoring four and old Bolton favourite Bobby Langton on the left wing.

Bolton Wanderers provided a lot of players in this period of course to the England side, Nat Lofthouse, Eddie Hopkinson, Mal Barrass, Doug Holden, Ray Parry, Tommy Banks etc.

Lofthouse, of course, earning his nickname "Lion of Vienna" in an England shirt, with his famous goal which decided a five goal thriller against Austria in 1952.

It's the programme with Wales in 1962, however, which last carried the name Bolton in the English teamsheet, Freddie Hill playing his part in a 4–0 England victory, although Paul Jones was included in the squad of players in the programme v Luxemburg in 1977.

The Hungary game of 1953 is the main Wembley programme for collectors, with the games against Scotland always producing many collectable items.

There were two programmes produced for the World Cup of 1966, one for the competition as a whole, and then one produced for the England v West Germany final.

Mentioning the World Cup brings me to the programmes produced for the other finals over the years.

The 1970 and 1978 finals were in South America where they very rarely produce programmes, therefore, the brochures in circulation for these finals are the ones produced in Britain for distribution World Wide.

The 1974 edition from West Germany is however a excellent production of 144 pages.

Amongst other fine foreign productions are the 1976 American Bicentennial Cup, and the Sweden v England 75th year celebration game last year.

Let's hope a triumph for England in Rome later this year, will make the European Nations Programme also a collectors item.

F.A. CUP SCENE

Manchester's Piccadilly was a bleak place after the third round of the F.A. Cup, with both City and United going out at the first stage. But depression in Manchester could scarcely match the feelings of Leicester fans whose team was made to look real squares by Isthmian League Harlow Town.

The magic of the F.A. Cup is in full swing again!

A fourth round programme without either of the Manchester clubs is almost unthinkable. United did at least go out with a fight, losing to a late replay goal to Tottenham at Old Trafford. But the manner of City's passing almost demanded a state funeral.

Even manager Malcolm Allison was sick after City's 1-0 defeat at Fourth Division Halifax. "It was just about the worst thing that could have happened to us at this time", he confessed. "Some of my players were beginning to show a lack of confidence and this is going to knock them hard.

"It was in the moments after the game that I recalled a little joke that the former England centre-forward Nat Lofthouse used to have with me. He spent his entire career with Bolton and he used to say that their season always came to an end in January when they were knocked out of the Cup.

"I'm not going to let that happen to us. On the face of it we have nothing left to play for. But I'm going to work with each of my players to ensure that every one of them is playing to his full capabilities by the end of the season".

United's chances of creating a Wembley F.A. Cup record went when they lost at home to a Spurs' side which ended the game with Glenn Hoddle in goal. United had appeared in the finals of 1976, 1977 and 1979 and could have become the first club to appear in four Wembley F.A. Cup finals in five years.

Harlow Town's achievement in knocking out Second Division Leicester in a replay must go down as one of the finest giant-killing acts of all time. It is quite rare for a non-League club to raise its game twice against a top professional side. Harlow were a trifle lucky to equalise in the last minute of the first match at Leicester. To win the replay

1-0 was magnificent.

But it wasn't the first time they had done it. In the previous round they drew away to Southend and then succeeded 1-0 in the replay. Harlow manager Ian Wolstenholme admitted some surprise at the way Leicester tackled the tie. "They didn't vary their tactics throughout either game. Even though they weren't getting any change out of us they kept on doing the same thing, using long balls that our defence gobbled up".

Altrincham Town put up a brave fight against Second Division Orient but, after losing the replay 1-2 at Brisbane Road, there was a feeling in the Altrincham camp that maybe they had done their League aspirations more good by losing!

The point is that Altrincham have already done more than enough to prove their worthiness to a place in the Fourth Division. In recent years they have knocked out Rochdale, Harlepool and Scunthorpe and drawn 1-1 at both Everton and Tottenham. In both cases their First Division opponents needed a penalty to earn the replay.

This season Altrincham knocked out Crewe and Rotherham before drawing the first match with Orient 1-1. At the end of the battle a proud manager Tony Sanders beamed: "We've lost, but Orient had to play at the very peak of their game to beat us".

An extended Cup run could have jeopardised Altrincham's chances of winning the championship of the Football Alliance. For most of the season they had held a comfortable lead at the top but, when they faced Orient, Weymouth had crept to within one point of them. Only if they finish top of the Alliance will Altrincham's name go forward for election to the Football League. "We're making that our top priority now", said Mr. Sanders.

Several fancied teams went out at the first stage. Southampton, F.A. Cup winners of 1976 and League Cup finalists last season, fancied their Cup chances at a time when they had run into top form in the League. But the Saints were well beaten by Second Division Birmingham and even manager Lawrie McMenemy had no complaints about the result. "I had a feeling this would happen", he shrugged.
